

The Northeast Ecumenical Stewardship Council (NESC) presents

Money Follows Mission: Stewardship Practices for the Body of Christ

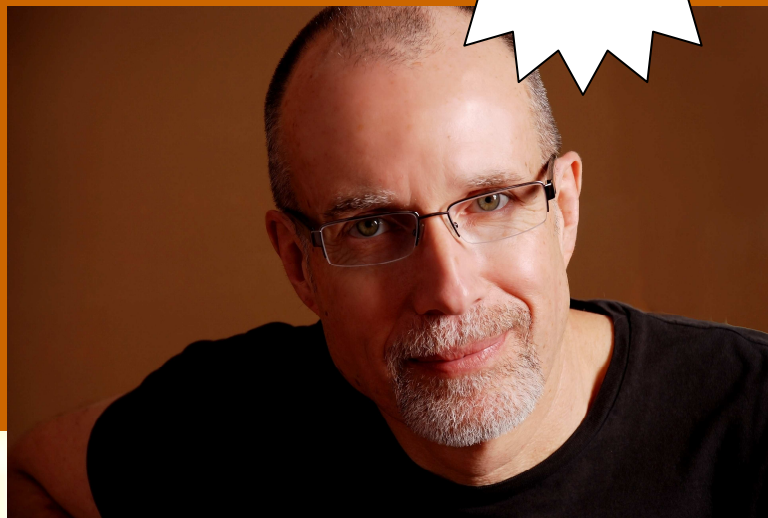

March 18-19, 2011

Holiday Inn, Marlboro, MA

SAVE
THE DATE!

A 2-day conference on Stewardship for clergy and lay leaders

Special Guest Speaker
The Rev. Mike Slaughter

The Rev. Michael (Mike) Slaughter is the Chief Dreamer of Ginghamburg Church, Tipp City, OH. His dynamic teaching, heart for the lost, and innovative approach to ministry have led Ginghamburg Church to outgrow all paradigms for a church in a cornfield. Mike will challenge attendees to wrestle with God and their God-destinies. He has written numerous books including Money Matters: Financial Freedom for All God's Children and his most recent book Change the World: Recovering the Message and Mission of Jesus.

The conference will feature networking opportunities, resources, and 11 workshops to inspire and provide practical tools to support your stewardship ministry. More information will be available through denominational websites, and online registration will be available at the beginning of October.

Early Bird Registration: (until Feb. 1) $95 ($85 for additional members of a church team), Friday only: $40, Saturday only: $65. Rates go up after Feb. 1.

"I think we have to first understand the whole Biblical principal of money. Money is not evil, the love of money or being controlled by money is. And one of the biggest things I see in the church is many of our members bring Jesus into their materialistic worldview, rather than to really be transformed into His. . ."

(Mike Slaughter, March 2010, Michigan Area Reporter, www.detroitconference.org.)

NESC includes these New England Denominations: American Baptists, Evangelical Lutherans, United Methodists, Episcopalians, Presbyterians, and the United Church of Christ